FROM COLONEL STANWIX.

CAMP NEAR CARLISLE 14th. July 1757

SIR

tho' it is very probable Captain Dagworthy has sent you a Copy of a Deposin. from John Street a Drumr. yet least this should not be so have inclosed that which he sent me what Stress there is to be laid on it I can not say, but by your Corpl. give you the trouble & if there should be any truth in it will put us upon our Guard, tho' I rather think if the Enemy are so strong as represent'd at Fort Duquesne & the Lakes they would be more likely detach to the North where Lord Loudoun is trying to make the Greatest Effort as I wrote You two days ago Shall only add that I am

Sir Your Most obedt. humble. Sert. JOHN STANWIX
